

Where the turf meets the surf, down at old Del Mar...
Take a plane, take a train, take a car....”

Known mostly for its history of the Del Mar Racetrack - an era where horseracing was second to baseball; where Seabiscuit won against Ligarati “by a nose” – horseracing was the main attraction of this seaside town, back in a day of simpler times. Through its evolution to modern day, Del Mar still boasts the famed Del Mar Racetrack, and many other beautiful sights and experiences just waiting to be explored.

Treat your guest or group to the luxury and sophistication of L’Auberge Del Mar . Ranked among the top resorts in the world by Condé Nast, this luxury hotel boasts 14,000 sq. ft of indoor and outdoor meeting space for your group and their meeting needs.

Enhance your guests experience with a multitude of activities including a day of relaxation and renewal at the Spa L’Auberge, shopping at the nearby Del Mar Shopping Plaza, or golf at some of San Diego’s most elite golf courses.

Then of course there is the dining, and several fine dining options to select from. Our dining experience led us to MARKET Restaurant + Bar, where Chef Carl Schroeder demonstrates his passion for locally sourced cuisine with a daily changing menu. Selections from start to finish are beautifully executed, flavor combinations that excite your palette and a dining atmosphere that is modern and sexy.

Leave your guests with an impression of a modern bygone era...

“There is a smile on every face and a winner in each race, where the turf meets the surf at Del Mar”.
