

Spotlight Destination: Discover Santa Monica

Situated between Los Angeles, Mar Vista and Venice is the iconic city of Santa Monica – An eclectic beachfront city that draws groups annually for business as well as pleasure.

Ideal for groups of any size, Santa Monica offers numerous activities year-round for guests to enjoy, including the Santa Monica Pier and Looff Hippodrome, three main shopping districts including the Third Street Promenade, and notoriously gorgeous beaches for miles.

Loews Santa Monica Beach Hotel offers open beachfront luxury, creating an unparalleled experience of Southern California. This hotel will pamper your group or client allowing them access to every service and luxury they may require during their stay. Aside from a full service spa, three onsite bars and farm to table room service, Loews Santa Monica Beach Hotel features Ocean and Vine, a fine dining restaurant which will cater to each individual's taste, providing an unforgettable culinary experience.

Aside from the picturesque scenery, lodging and activities, Santa Monica boasts many ideal venues that are perfect for intimate group gatherings, as well as larger group events, including Santa Monica Museum of Art and Pier 59 Studios West. So quintessential Southern California, so laid back yet on point...

“Get your kicks in Santa Monica, at the end of Route 66.”